

Piano

f - Molto Rubato

b. 12

Arg. quiet

↑

↓

to be an affair - Feb - 5/12/24

2 Sax, piano, viola, vello

first line

The above is great, but horrible. The melody looks only a semblance of substance, and is certainly not an idea.
an idea will include a simple pentatonic melody. This melody must be "rational", and carry with it an impassioned quality, allowing for near-infinite variation. I will employ dreaming, meditation, or altered states to reach the psyche space containing the musical material required. It is my hope that a true commitment to the method will yield decent results from which I might glean a piece.

idea?

~~the~~ instruments can serve as poly accompaniment, phasing in and out. This might be an excellent way to introduce form.

Violin Solo Concerto - Part 2

• 90 BPM + 60 BPM CONTRAST

Handwritten musical score for Violin Solo Concerto - Part 2, measures 1 through 137. The score is written on five systems of staves. The first system is marked with a double bar line and a right-pointing arrow. The second system is marked with a double bar line and a right-pointing arrow. The third system is marked with a double bar line and a right-pointing arrow. The fourth system is marked with a double bar line and a right-pointing arrow. The fifth system is marked with a double bar line and a right-pointing arrow. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and accidentals. The time signature is 4/4. The tempo is marked as 90 BPM + 60 BPM CONTRAST. The score ends with a double bar line and a right-pointing arrow.

Handwritten musical score for Violin Solo Concerto - Part 2, measures 138 through 257. The score is written on five systems of staves. The first system is marked with a double bar line and a right-pointing arrow. The second system is marked with a double bar line and a right-pointing arrow. The third system is marked with a double bar line and a right-pointing arrow. The fourth system is marked with a double bar line and a right-pointing arrow. The fifth system is marked with a double bar line and a right-pointing arrow. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and accidentals. The time signature is 4/4. The tempo is marked as 90 BPM + 60 BPM CONTRAST. The score ends with a double bar line and a right-pointing arrow.

Opening Material will begin with a t2 zone - esque violin duo monologue; Similar to NMT 2, a single melody should be constructed out of hocketed melodic material. The focus of such material should be chords which fit nicely within a justly-tuned framework goals of opening: get audience attuned to the limited tonal space of the violas, then introduce the tutti sound.

perhaps passages like

, cycling but every so often all "drums and purrs of the blood"

↳ the smaller rhythmic value will always land on the off-beats
↳ even if sonically it sounds on-beat.

these sections will have an arbitrary start-stop pulse, substituting a 16th for a longer beat value, giving the section breath pauses.

After introduction of orchestra, all included tones of the melody will be used for a canon reiteration, and offset to generate harmonic material

Chordal Shocks

Notes that collapse in Swells can be used to step into new material

tutti can echo current musical material definitely only for the solo opening material.

Such patterns lose clarity w/ orchestra

Highlighted zones act as sum total of harmonic material available to the violas

01 1

01 2

01 3

frame open

Light Core up slowly, Calve from setting frame ready, a knock at the door
We need to use Articulations for the diff sounds

1st Rhythm tree
try to categorize rhythms!

Handwritten musical notation on three staves, featuring various rhythmic patterns and notes, including some circled and numbered elements.

4
4

Handwritten musical notation on ten staves, showing a complex melodic line with many notes, rests, and accidentals.

Change
Notes

Handwritten musical notation on ten staves, continuing the melodic line with various rhythmic and melodic developments.

Now solo for piece? If no, usually work every few seconds, melody in Strato, more

My music sounds like the music of someone who is Starved, Starved of sound, Is this a good thing? I think the answer is Vicious in the moment. On the one hand, this is reflective of our musical history as composers; on the other, it's counter to our age of surplus.
 I could be putting myself in the position of always leaving my audience either wanting more... or unsatisfied. Something to consider...

Flute piece

title: od Mora, do Mora. Svakome svoje.
 Od Mora, do Mora. Dali su mi pjesacki vremena.
 Od Mora do Mora. Dali su mi na pjesacki vremena.
 from sea to sea, They gave me to the sands of time

Solo Flute + electronics + video, 2025

